TO-DAY'S NEWS IN BRIEF.

BUSINESS Yesterday's bank clearings were $7,517,-553; balances $867,446, Local discount rates were between 5 and 6 per cent. Domestic exchange was quoted as follows: New York, Mc premium hid, 40c premium asked; Chicago, 10c premium bld, lic premium asked; Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans, 10: discount bld, par asked. Wheat closed steady at 55½c Dec., 869 Since No. 2 red. Corn closed lower at 414c a. Dec., 4516145c No. 2 mixed. Onto closed at 28%c b. Dec., 27627%c No. 2 mixed. The local market for spot cotton was WASHINGTON. Circuit Attorney Folk of St. Louis held his final conference to-day with Secre-tary Hay and President Roosevelt and departed for his home. The United States now will make formal requests for Kratz, Wainwright and Kelley.

LOCAL AND SUBURBAN. Doctor Eugene Lewis and Miss Dorothy Lee were married before attending the Vetled Prophet ball. Rialto Grain Company sues to have the Coroner cited for contempt of court. Attorneys for Mrs. Clara Taylor, who has been an inmate of St. Vincent's Asylum for two years, charged that her husband had only visited her twice.

Miss Mabel Sutherland, who has a brother, Allen Sutherland, discovered that the youth under arrest at Clayton, for whom she had arranged to give bond, was not her brother.

United States Senator Cockrell announced his candidacy for re-election.

Hazel Dolson won first prize for improved back yard in the Third Ward. GENERAL DOMESTIC.

The National Executive Committee of the United Mine Workers grants permission to strike to the Colorado coal miners. Cole Younger is forced to pay into court the $3,000 which he held out of the funds of the Wild West show with which he was formerly connected. He alleged that he was holding the money to pay back those who claimed they had been swin-

Union musicians at Chicago now assert that the services of the Marine Band at the centennial celebration were obtained through misrepresentation. Militiamen in one of the garrisons at Cripple Creek are poisoned, and an analyals of the water supply is being made.

Post-Office Auditor Castle has resigned from pressure of private business, he says. Rumor that he sold stock in mines to Postmasters declared without foundation by retiring official.

Commercial reviews indicate that more caution is shown in business commitments. though trade generally remains fairly ac-Two big Bessemer-using mills at Home stead are closed down indefinitely, throwing 2,000 men out of employment. The contract of the underwriting syn dicate of the Shipbuilding Trust shows that J. P. Morgan & Co. and Charles M.

Assistant Attorney Christiancy of the Post-Office Department has resigned. He has been on vacation since April because of Ill health.

By a decree of the faculty of Columbia University, women will not be allowed to take courses leading to degree of Master of Diplomacy. One woman had asked to be admitted to the course, but students protested.

The former wife of Kid McCoy was married Wednesday to a wealthy Yale man, formerly coxswain of several crews, The Reverend Olympia Brown of Wie consin scored the President's idea of race suicide at the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association meeting in Joliet. She said it was not more persons in the world which was desired, but a higher order of intel-

Harry Spalding, a young druggist at Urbana, Ill., is deranged by the use of a combination of drugs, and tries to kill his mother. When a police captain tries to subdue him he fires at the officer. The army maneuvers at Camp Young are practically over, and the State troops will begin to break sump to-day. Harvey Skipworth committed suicide at Centralia, Ill., after leaving minute directions for the disposition of his body. Governor Green McCurtain declares in his message to the tribal Legislature that the reason for the sale of allotments is the impoverished condition of the full Little land is sold at the land sales a

Muscogee. The blds for property are near-James Todd of Marvville Mo. dentes

the charge of a Republican organ that he was forced to resign as a member of the State Board of Arbitration because he favors Folk for Governor.

Friends of Editor Van Norman of the Chautauquan staff in Chicago have received word that he is on his way home with a bride. She was formerly Mile. Katnowski, daughter of a Polish Prince. Two unions of window-glass workers are seeking to consolidate in Pittsburg, so that skilled workers may get higher wages.

The home of a Constable near Jonlin. Mo., is wrecked by dynamite. The Con-stable and his children have a narrow es-Seventy-five girls engage in a fierce rough-and-tumble fight at Washburn College, in Kansas. The cause of the trouble was the annual "cane rush." Three distinct earthquake shocks were felt at Nevada, Mo.

Ivory Rogers, a boy, confesses to the murder of a 13-year-old girl at Stillwater, Ok., and is sent to the Penitentiary for The grandchild of a wealthy planter near Memphia, Tenn., who disappeared six months ago, it has developed was stolen by a woman and died in the City Hospital. He was buried as a pauper.

Marine Intelligence. New York, for Rotterdam (and pro-

Queenstown, Oct. 9 .- Arrived: Lucania, New York, for Liverpool (and proceeded). Cherbourg, Oct. 8.—Sailed: Auguste Victoria (from Hamburg and Southampton),

New York. Liverpool, Oct. 9 .- Arrived: Carpathia. New York. Greenock, Oct. 8.-Arrived: Carthaginlan

Philadelphia, via St. Johns, Newfound-Quenstown, Oct. 2.-Arrived: New England, Boston, for Liverpool (and proceed-Plymouth, Oct. 9 .- Arrived: Moltke, New York, for Cherbourg and Hamburg (and proceeded). Moville, Oct. 2 .- Salled: Furnessia, New York. Queenstown, Oct. 5.-Salled: Comm wealth, Boston Southampton, Oct. 3.-Sailed: Auguste Victoria, New York, via Cherbourg. Moville, Oct. 2 .- Sailed; Pretorian, Mont

New York, Oct. 9 .- Arrived: Chemnitz. Bremen, Sailed: Cedric, Liverpool, Hong-Kong, Oct. 8.-Arrived: Indravelli, Portland, Ore., via Yokohama.

Liverpool, Oct. 2.-Salled: Cymric, New York, via Queenstown. Buenes Ayres, Oct. 8.-Arrived: Robert Adamson, Seattle and Tacoma, via Coronet.
Natucket Lightship, Oct. 2.—Steamer La.
Savole, from Havre, for New York, in communication at 1:20 p. m. Steamer Campania, from Liverpool and Queenstown, for New York, in communication

POLICEMAN FINED $25 FOR GAMING.

Michael Hogan, Proprietor of Saloon, and Player Also Found Guilty by a Jury.

Patrolmen Charles F. Campbell, John Giyan and William Timpke; Thomas Barry, known as "Chief" Barry, and Michael Hogan, were found guilty of gambling by a jury in the Court of Criminal Correction last evening. Fines of $35 were imposed on all but Hogan, the proprietor of the saloon in which the game is alleged to have been played. His fine was fixed at Judge C. H. Paxon, attorney for the deendants, filed a motion for a new trial. Judge Moore will hear arguments in sup-

Judge Moore will hear arguments in support of the motion next Saturday.

The bonds on which Campbell, Glynn, Timpke, Barry and Hogan were released were fixed at $30. Timothy Maioney, member of the House of Delegates from the Sixteenth Ward, is surety.

The arguments to the Jury consumed an bour, half of the time being allotted to each side. Prosecuting Attotrney Charles P. Williams appeared for the State, and Attotrneys Ben T. Clarke and E. E. Campbell, one of the defense. The latter is a brother of Patrolman Charles F. Campbell, one of the defendants.

Attorney Clark, in his argument, denounced the reporters on whose testimony the Grand Jury found the indictments.

ments.

Prosecuting Attorney Williams answered the allegations of conspiracy by declaring that the defendants had not been able to account for their actions on the night of the alleged game, and appealed to the jurous to justify the action of newspapers which across constructions leaving the constructions. which expose corruption or laxity in the conduct of public officers. MOTION TO QUASH.

Afterney Ben Clark entered a motion to quash the indictment against the defendants on the ground that its wording Gid not give Judge Moore jurisdiction in the case. He pointed out that the indictment charged the defendants with unlawfully and feloniously shooting craps."

This charge, he said, would make the case a felony, and after indictment, he contended, Judge Moore's jurisdiction applies only to misdemeanor cases. Judge Moore took the motion under advisement until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and then rendered his decision overruling it.

The jurors were: Mynor H. Long. No.

15364 Mississippi avenue; Phil M. Nagel, No. 1723 North Thirteenth street; Frank B. Young, No. 1461 Arlington avenue; George Wolf, No. 2702 Macklind avenue; Oscar L. Mersman, No. 196% Kennett place; Francis H. Webster, No. 512 Bates street; Casper S. Solberg, No. 362 North Eleventh street; James E. Stees, No. 20124 Hebert street; Wiley H. Patterson, No. 141 St. Ange avenue; James F. Osborne No. 1715 Longfellow boulevard; Ambrose Nu. No 2830 Missouri avenue.

Attorney Campbell of Louisiana, Mo., a brother of Patrolman Campbell, and Judge Paxson appeared as associate counsel for

Schwab obtained the principal part of the REPORTER CHIEF WITNESS. The testimony of the State's three in ortant witnesses developed that Patrolman Campbell, at least, was led into rap for the purpose of satisfying a petty grievance of one of his fellow-officers and to give an afternoon newspaper a story. Chief Kiely was in the courtroom during the afternoon and heard the testimony of Chief Kiely was in the courtroom during the afternoon and heard the testimony of the witnesses.

H. S. Nichols, a reporter, was the first witnesse. He declared that he saw Hogan, Barry and Patrolmen Glyan, Campbell and Timpke shooting craps in Hogan's saloon on the morning of October 2. He said he had been sent out to see Patrolman Ernest Morton, who was to introduce him to another policeman, who would take him into the craps game at Hogan's.

He said this plan was carried out and that they got into the game about 12 o'clock. Nichols said he did not shoot craps.

H. L. Lewis, a reporter, corroborated the testimony of Nichols. He said that he did the craps shooting and lost $\frac{1}{2}$. He identified all of the defendants as participants in the game. He said that Policemen Giynn, Timpke and Campbell all wore their uniforms. Lewis stated that he had been introduced to Policeman Morton as H. L. Davis, and that an arrangement had been made with Morton to introduce them to Campbell. He said that Morton introduced Nichols as his cousin. ment had been made with aborton to in-troduce them to Campbell. He said that Morton Introduced Nichols as his cousin. J. D. Morton. Campbell, Lewis declared, took them to Hogan's, and they went into the back room, where the craps game was in progress
MORTON TESTIFIES.
Morto

Patrolman Ernest L. Morton, who walked the best with Campbell, admitted having introduced Lewis and Nichols under fictitious names. He said he had heard policemen played; that he did not believe it was right for them to violate the law them into the game at Hogan's. Morton admitted that he had made two been published in the papers, about the papers. game. He declared he did this to shield other policemen whom he did not know were in the game. He said Campbell often left to him the work of covering their beat and he did not think this was right Captain Gaffney testified that the three policemen—Timpke, Glynn and Campbell— denied to him that they had ever been in a craps gams at Hogan's, and the State rested its case. Ben Clark, chief counsel for the defend-ants, cross-questioned all the witnesses, but did not shake their testimony on the main points. left to him the work of covering their but did not shake their testimony on the main points.

Michael Hogan, keeper of the saloon, testified that there was no craps game in his saloon that night, and that he did not see the policemen in the place.

Richard Waish, No. 1986 Coleman street; Thomas Wileux, No. 2304 Howard street; Doctor Oriando Gibson, No. 1210 North Jefferson avenue, and Edward Kinney, No. 1711 Elilot avenue, testified that they were in the saloon on the night in question, and that they knew of no craps game. Kinney and Wileux said that they were in the saloon from 19 o'clock to 1:39 in the morning, and were playing pool. If there had been a craps game in the back room, they said, they would have known it.

DID NOT SEE GAME.

DID NOT SEE GAME. Doctor Gibson said that he was in the valoon from 1:15 until 2:45, and that he Boulogns, Oct. 9.-Arrived: Noordam, was talking to Hogan. He answered that he knew how to shoot craps, but had never done so in Hogan's place. He said that he had been in the back room, but was not in it that night. He did not believe it would have been possible for a game to be going on there without him knowing about it.

Fred Nash, employe of an undertaking firm at No. 2540 Dickson street, said be saw Campbell and Morton passing the store at 12:20 and 2:10 o'clock in the morn-store at 12:20 and 2:10 o'clock in the morning.

Henry Henning, saloonkeeper at Jefferson avenue and Gamble street, said that Timpke was in his saloon at 11:20, 12 and 1 o'clock.

John H. McDonald of No. 7:10 Gamble street said that he saw Timpke at Gamble and Zillot avenue at 11:45 o'clock.

Samuel Sargent, patrol wagon driver of the Ninth District, declared that Timpke came into the patrolinuse at 1:15 in the morning, asked him for a match, and that he sent the patrolinuan to his locker and invited him to help himself.

Patrick Kielty of No. 1113 North Twenty-first street, who boards at the home of Policeman Glynn's mother, stated that he saw Glynn at 11:20 and 12:15 o'clock, and that he left the policeman at his home at 12:15.

Honor Captain Bartholow. Honor Captain Bartholow.

Colonel Henry T. Mott of Company A of the old St. Louis National Guard, of which the late Captain Henry Bartholow was an active member, has appointed a committee to draft resolutions in Captain Bartholow's memory. Members of the association will attend Captain Bartholow's funeral to-morrow, and several of his former committee will represent the association as palibearers.

HOPES TO REGAIN WEALTH AS WELL AS HER LIBERTY.

Who is nearing the close of a long term of imprisonment in England on a charge of potenting her husband. She will be released next spring. Recently she has brought sults against the trustees of American estates to which she is heir, and hopes to obtain in that way enough wealth to make the remainder of her life comfortable. at least. She probably will return to the United States after her release.

INDICTMENTS EXPECTED AGAINST AL MORROW. BARRETT AND GILLICK.

Continued From Page One.

was in this way that Morrow's alleged complicity in the issuing of the papers was first found out. Barrett had already been indicted for aiding and abetting in secur ing papers for allens in St. Louis. NORTONI HAS WORKED LONG ON CASES.

Bert Nortoni has been working on natralization-fraud cases since his appointment by United States District Attorney Dyer. The indictment charging conspiracy against Gillick, Morrow and Barrett came as a consequence of the frauds which he unearthed last winter and spring among Italians and Jews.

Information which led to the last is dictment was brought to him by a St. Louis County Republican, who read of the frauds in the downtown district. He called on Nortoni and expressed the opinion that if certain clews were followed results equally as important would be secured as in the other cases. He gave the name of a German to Nortoni.

Developments showed that his inform ant spoke by the card. The German gave the names of other men, who had received naturalization papers at the same time. Nortoni interviewed the men, heard their stories and secured the pa-pers, which, it is alleged, were forged. All of these men said that they had received their papers from Gillick. Nor-toni took the papers to the officials of the Court of Appeals, who claimed that the Gillick was sent for. Upon his arrival the office of the Ass torney, Nortoni read the United States statutes that provide penalties of from one to five years in the Penitentiary and fines of from $100 to $1,000 for persons having in their possession fraudulent naturalization papers, or for giving them to any person. The statute is connected with the issuance, distribution or knowledge of plant is in course of construction at the such papers.

that he had taken a party of men down | will be thoroughly modern. to the Court of Appeals one night, but of a game of craps at Hogan's in which that the Judges were gone. According to tem will be established, and work upon t his story, he went to the headquarters of the Democratic State Central Committee built in order to provide safe conveyance at the Laclede Hotel and there met Tom for passenger trains coming in from the had given his information to an afternoon hewspaper. Then an arrangement was Morrow, according to his story to Normade with him to introduce the reporters toni, that he could not get the men to dies all freight shipped by way of the to Patrolman Campbell, who would take come from the county. Barret said that give to him the names of the men for false reports of the matter after it had whom he wished to get naturalization

"I went back home," said Gillick to Nortoni, "and procured the names. It had and when completed the Terminal Combeen agreed that I was to give them to Morrow, who would deliver them to Barrett. I took one list myself to Morrow and sent another by my brother. Morrow turned them over to Barrett, who got the papers and gave them back to Morrow, who in turn gave them to me."

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

COMPANY L SMOKER TO-NIGHT Guardsmen Preparing for Fort

Riley Maneuvers.

brate its second anniversary as a military ompany. The affair is to be a house surming party, as the company has just aken possession of new quarters and the equipment.

This company expects to be well represented at the Fort Riley maneuvers. Its officers and a committee have arranged for entertainment at the armory, and a banquet at one of the hotels afterward. The following is a list of members:

The following is a list of members:
Captain Samuel Rosenfeit, First Lieutenant Phillo M. Buck, Scoond Lieutenant Louis J. El-brecht, First Sergeant J. M. Fisher, Quartermaster Sergeant W. C. Mersman, Sergeants L. C. Kingsiand, George Ruhe, D. Mailn, W. Fitzrey, Corporals R. G. McCoy G. Era, O. Greene, M. Shanda, F. W. Hium, and the following enlisted men: J. B. Bernard, W. A. Hurnett, O. E. Broeggeman, R. L. Hienenstole, M. C. Carrill, R. J. Chaffer, F. M. Chark, J. J. Coll. W. Theory, C. C. L. Charles, F. M. Chark, J. J. Coll. W. L. Charles, F. M. Chark, J. J. Coll. W. R. L. Charles, F. M. Chark, J. J. Coll. W. R. L. Charles, F. M. Chark, J. J. Coll. W. R. L. Charles, F. M. Chark, J. J. Coll. W. R. L. Charles, F. M. Chark, J. J. Coll. W. R. L. Charles, F. M. J. Killow, W. Kirchner, H. J. Killow, F. J. Killow, W. Kirchner, H. J. Killow, F. J. Killow, W. Kirchner, H. G. Schmidt, C. W. Doden, T. C. Charles, C. C. Schmidt, C. Schwider, A. M. Van Nort, R. Wheise, J. W. Weinheims, A. M. Van Nort, R. Wheise, J. W. Weinheims, D. B. White.

The Royal Hungarian Husear Band will play every noon, evening and after the-ater at the New American Restaurant, Sixth and Olive streets.

Emma Rupple, who lives with her sister at No. 251 Hebert street, attempted suicide yesterday by swallowing a dose of morphine. She was attended to by Doctor C. W. Parker of No. 252 North Jefferson avenue, who pronounced her condition not serious. Miss Rupple is 22 years old and single.

Want the Wabash Improved. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

low's funeral to-morrow, and several of his former commades will represent the association as pallbearers.

Evansyille, Ind., Oct. 2.—A large meeting of the Wabsah River Improvement Association was held at New Harmony to-night. Money was appropriated to make a map of the cild Wabsah and Michafer at the New American Restaurant, Sixth and Olive streets.

IMPROVEMENTS B THE TERMINAL R. R.

A. P. Greensfelder Gives Account of Work Being Done Before the Railway Club.

$4,000,000 TO BE SPENT.

Provides for Complete Overhauling of Belt System and Extensive Repairs to the Merchants' Bridge.

The progress of the improvements being nade on the property of the Terminal Railroad, together with improvements contemplated, was the subject of a paper read at the meeting of the St. Louis Rallway Club in the Mercantile Clubrooms last night.

of the Terminal Company, gave a concise handwriting was that of the Marshal of account of the work which has been accomplished. The improvements made and Upon his arrival stant District At-

The following facts were taken from Mr. Greensfelder's paper: The Eust St. Louis ranging yard is being increased about 50 per cent and the work of enlarging is well under way and will be completed soon after January 1, 1904. An entirely new electric interlocking

Then Gillick told his story. He said and in operation within three weeks. It At Madison an electric interlocking sys will soon commence. This plant will be The Madison freight yards, which handles all freight shipped by way of the

he could fix it all right, and for him to good proportion, and this work has been over half completed. The work of converting the Illinois Transfer, the belt line of the East Side into double track is progressing rapidly, pany promises that all business can be handled properly around the belt. At East Madison repair shops and a roundhouse are being constructed, and the work is nearing completion. This plant will be equipped with a new transfer table and at the new shop all cars from both sides of the river will be repaired A recent inspection of the Eads bridge Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Mr. Greensfelder reported, showed that drugglals refund money if it falls to cure, structure to be in a remarkably good constitution of the control of the contr dition. He said further that the intention is to begin immediately the work of making additional improvements on the bridge in order that it may accommodate the heavier engine loading. It is contemplated to make extensive improvements on the Merchants' bridge. Company L of the First Regiment, N. G. Heavy steel viaducts will replace the M., will give a smoker to-night to cele- wooden treatle work at the east and west approaches of this bridge,

The West Belt connection with the Wabush at DeHodiamont is being built with double track, and the progress of the work thus fur indicates an early compl The extension will be free from grade crossings, and it will handle all freight destined for points outside of St. Louis in order to keep it out of the congested Mill Creek Valley.

In addition to this belt there is being constructed what is known as the Central Belt, which will connect with the Burilington on the north and the Frisco on the south. It will handle all rapid through business.

The Bremen avenue yards, Mr. Greensfelder stated, are to be increased in order that the ney belt lines can properly handie the business over the Merchants' bridge. Creek Valley main line tracks and yards is in progress and the work will be completed in ample time to take care of the increased traffic occasioned by the World's Fair. Mr. Greensfelder said that the suc-REPUBLIC SPECIAL cess of the work thus far indicates a completion of the yards at least sixty days before the World's Fair opens. The shops at Stateenth street will be transferred to Madison to enable the construction of a large engine coaling yard on the present site of the shops. The new power-house, supplying light and electric power for Union Station, is completed and in operation.

Operators Refuse Demands.

Operators Refuse Demands.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Peoria, Ill., Oct 9.—The coal operators of Illinois to-day refused to accede to the demands of the hoisting engineers for 200 a month advance, offered as a compromise at 175 per cent increase. This will be considered by the engineers in the morning.

NIXON ADVISES AGAINST

Meeting Arranged to Consider Project Advocated by the Reverend F. Frederick Bliss.

PARLIAMENT AT THE FAIR.

MAY HOLD JUNIOR WORLD'S

A meeting will be held at the Lindell A meeting will be not a the the the approaching municipal election began to-tablishment of a "Junior St. Louis," a day, but the storm prevented thousands "Junior World's Fair," and, in fact, a of the electors from presenting themselves "Junior United States of America." for enrollment.

der the supervision of the Reverend F. were planning to import and coionize fi-frederick Bliss, who is now in the city. legal voters. They said that all attempts The object of these societies is to incui-at improper registration or voting would cate patriotism and the principles of incorruptible citizenship. Its teachings, which are along practical

Its teachings, which are along practical lines is a government of juniors, by the juniors and for the juniors. It is simply a duplication of American government, foilowed out by the children while they are at school.

In Chicago, each school represented a State, the children, the citizens who selected their representatives, who, in turn, met and conduct a junior congress, thereby learning of practical civics.

by learning of practical civies.

Mr. Blies has planned to try and get a World's Parliament of Youth to meet in St. Louis at the World's Fair, similar to one held at Chicago in 1882.

World's Fair officials and Superintendent Soldan of the St. Louis public schools are said to have given their support to the enterprise. The meeting will be held in parlor No. 22 at 2 o'clock.

FILES SCHEDULE OF DEBTS. Julius Meyer Company Lists Liabilities at $174,539.24. A petition of William D. Meyer, Alexander H. Meyer and Leo J. Rosenthal, emprising the firm of Julius Meyer, Sons & Co., was yesterday filed in the United States District Court, asking that the petitioners be adjudged voluntary bank-

With the petition was filed a schedule of the assets and liabilities of the firm. The aggregate of the debts was listed at SI74.532.24. The assets were not given, as the property of the partnership was trans-ferred to the Meyer Store Dry Goods Com-pany, the affairs of which are in the hands of Carlos A. Stacey, appointed receiver by the United States District Court at The assets will be scheduled later, with the individual assets and liabilities of members of the Julius Meyer & Company copartnership. No adjudie of the matter has been made. WANT TO CONDEMN MERGER. Fraternal Army Calls a Meeting of All Surrounding Posts. Peoria, III., Oct. 8.-Peoria posts of the Fraternal Army of America, recently merged into the Loyal Army, to-night called a meeting of all posts of Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin, Wash-ington, to meet in Peoria, November 3.

The merger may be condemned and the Praternal Army reorganized with head-quartery in Peoria.

ASSISTANTS FOR VALLIANT. Bill Fixes Additional Help in Sewer Commissioner's Office.

Speaker Gazzolo introduced a bill in the House last night providing for the appointment of additional help in the office of Sewer Commissioner Vallant. The positions to be filled are for a civil engineer and three assistants, three draftsman and a stenographer.

On motion of McCarthy the vote, which at the last meeting prevented a bill for damages rendered by the Murphy Trunk Company from going to its second reading, was reconsidered and the bill allowed to go through the regular routine The House adjourned for a week.

Miners Congress Parade.

Galens, Kas., Oct. 2.-The parade of the Miners' Congress to-day was all that could be expected. There were half a dozen bands, degens of floats and hundreds of men in the line of march, Professor G. P. Grinesly arrived in the city to inke charge of the collection of specimens of mineral in the ore monument, besides adding more to it. Professor Grinesly came from Washburn College, where he is professor of mineralogy and scology. He is representative on the World's Fair Commission.

Late River News. Crystal City, Mo., Oct. 2.—The gauge reads IT.5 feet and rising. Chester down at 620 p. m. Columbia down at 720 p. m. General Casey and fow down at 210 p. m. Weather clear and cool. Wheeling. W. Va., Oct. 2.—River 6 feet 2 INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT.

HUNTER

BALTIMORE

None as good at a lower price;

None better at any price;

The Standard of the World.

THE

AMERICAN GENTLEMAN'S

WHISKEY

DAVID NICHOLSON, Bt. Louis, Mo.

Says Issues Should Not Be Complicated by Independent Demo-

New York, Oct. 2.-Registration for the

"Juntor United States of America."

Junior municipalities have been formed in various parts of the United States under the supervision of the Reverend F.

Production When who is now to the city.

ent of Elections.

out the fear of contradiction that the ma such a condition that they can say without the fear of contradiction that the machinery, on the Democratic side, at least, is not devoted to private gain. I think it essential that no one overpowering influence should dominate all the boroughs.

"I think it will be well, pending the election, to leave your membership free to vote as their individual judgment dictates.
There is now enough of a choice before the voters and the issues should not be complicated, in my judgment, by an independent movement at this time."

"The Brooklyn Eagle says:

"Mayor Low has been asked by a committee representing regular Democrats in Brooklyn to head a new ticket with Hinrichs, McGuire and the McLaughlin candidates for county officers. The request came from men so close to Hugh MoLaughlin that there was no mistaking the design to throw as much as possible of the regular Democratic vote in this borough to fusion and against McCleilan, Grout and Fornes."

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Woodruff sald to-day:

"It may be stated that unless there is convolved conservance around the former.

"It may be stated that unless there is complete concurrence among Mr. Low's associates, he will not consent to run on this ticket. The design of those who are interested in it is to emphasize the issue among Democrats in the Tammanyization of Brooklys.

among Democratics of Brooklyn.
"If the Mayor's associates consent, not see that there would be any object as we are all against Tammany in Br lyn, whatever other issues divide us."

NINTH WARD FOLK CLUB. One Hundred and Fifty to Support

Circuit Attorney. Democrats of the Ninth Ward organized a Folk club last night at Concordia Turner Hall, corner of Thirteenth and Argenal streets. The meeting was large and enthusiastic, 157 voters gathering under the banner of the Circuit Attorney.

The club has established permanen headquarters at Concordia Turner Hall, which, in former years, was the stronghold of the Republicans of the Ninth Ward. At the meeting there were speeches, the tenor of which was the sweeping of the yard for Folk at the gubernatorial primaries.

primaries.

No politicians were invited to the meeting, it is said, it being composed of citizens who believe Mr. Folk the logical candidate. The members say that they will swell the club's roster several hundred more before the next meeting night.

The following officers were elected: Frederick H. Eynotten president, Henry Mueller vice president, Edward Dierkes secretary, and Adam Ziegler sergeant-atarms. The club will hold meetings on the first and third Mondays of each month, Doctor Monatt Sails To-Day. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Boston, Mass., Oct. 8.—Doctor M. F. Mo-natt of St. Louis is among the saloon as sengers to-morrow on the Dominion Lines Vancouver for the Mediterranean. He vis-its Naples, Genoa and the Levant.

Leaves Matter to Executive Board. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Springfield, Ill., Oct. 9 .- After a lengthy and stormy session the delegate convention of the Springfield district, United Mine Workers of America, which was called to consider the washhouse contro-versy, decided to-day to reconsider the action taken at its former meeting. The convention then agreed to leave the en-tire matter to the State Executive Board.

Woman Attempted to Suicide Woman Attempted to Suicide.

While in despondent mood over family difficulties yesterday afternoon Mrs. Lillian Larkin of No. 1904 South Third street attempted to take her life with a dose of opium. She left a note which indicated that she and her husband had quarreled. After swallowing the poison she was found by neighbors, who called in a physician. Later the woman was taken to the City Hospital. Her condition is not considered serious.

Counsellor Woerner Returns Associate City Counselor William F. Woerner has returned from Chicago, where he has been assisting in the drainage canal cases. He goes to Jefferson City Tuesday to argue the validity of the weed ordinance before the Supreme Court. The test case was brought by Attorney Smith P. Gait, who appealed after being fined 19 in the Police Court for allowing weeds to grow on premises he owned.

Ever notice the prosperous air of a well-dressed man? Prosperity makes for the well-dressed man.

But not always-some of our best customers are men in moderate circumstances. They are men of refined tastes-men who know that a

Harlan - dressed man commands respect no matter what his station. We have over two thousand patterns on our tables in fall goods-the man of quiet, refined tastes is sure dozens of designs to his liking. Fabrics are there, suitable for business suits at $30 to $60; for Tuxedos at $45 to $65; for full dress, $50 to $75; and for overcoats, $30 to $75. HARLAN BROTHERS TAILORS.

Sixth and St. Charles Sts., St. Louis.

SHIPS REPORTED ASHORE.

Sixty Mile Gale Raging Along Atlantic Coast. Norfolk, W. Va., Oct. 9 .- Two threemasted schooners are reported blown ashore off Oceanview, in the Lower Chesapeake. A sixty-mile wind is raging along the Virginia-North Carolina Coast from Cape Henry to Kittyhakw, and reports of very rough weather have been coming in from the seaboard. The heavy blow has backed an unusually high tide into the inner harbor, and all the water front streets in the commercial districts are flooded.

MORROW WILL NOT TALK. Seems in No Way Worried, but

Has Nothing to Say. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 2 -Al Morrow, when seen to-night by The Republic correspondent, politely but firmly declined to say anything for publication. He seemed no way worried, but positively refused to talk about the matter.

A surprise reception was tendered to the Reverend and Mrs. John Baltzer by the congregation of Zion German Evangelical Church.

AN OLD ADAGE

SAYS___ "A light purse is a heavy curse" Sickness makes a light purse. The LIVER is the seat of nine tenths of all disease.

go to the root of the whole mate

ter, thoroughly, quickly safely and restore the action of the LIVER to normal condition. Give tone to the system and solid flesh to the body. Take No Substitute.